

PRESS RELEASE

Syzygy AG acquires leading online marketing services company GFEH

Bad Homburg, December 4, 2006

Syzygy AG has today signed a purchase contract for 51 percent of the shares in GFEH Gesellschaft für elektronischen Handel mbH based in Hamburg. The share acquisition is effective backdated to November 1, 2006. Both parties have agreed to keep the purchase price confidential.

GFEH Gesellschaft für elektronischen Handel mbH (www.GFEH.de) is a leading online marketing company. Its portfolio of services embraces search engine marketing, the production of traditional online advertising campaigns, affiliate marketing and marketing audits. GFEH's clients include many major businesses, including companies from the financial services sector, the retail trade and the travel industry.

"Joining up with Syzygy provides an opportunity for GFEH and our clients to create the perfect combination of existing online marketing tools and Internet applications", explains Markus Baier, CEO of GFEH.

"GFEH is a specialised services provider that has shown strong, profitable growth over recent years", comments Marco Seiler, Chief Executive Officer at Syzygy AG. "Together we can offer clients an integrated range of services and our employees an extremely attractive environment for their future development."

With this investment Syzygy AG strengthens its market position in the online marketing field and positions the company as a European full-service provider for online advertising and Internet applications.
